A Glance at Functional Food Industry Future Trend in Asia

Functional Food Ingredients Market Size, by Region, 2015-2020 ($Million)

Considering the strong fundamentals of the Asia functional food market, it's expected that the growth will remain steady in the future as well. The prominent future trend for functional food market in Asia will be an increased emphasis on the nutritional claims made by manufacturers on the labels. In the future, consumers are more likely to buy something au naturale and more healthy instead of something artificially adulterated.. Demand for functional foods has traditionally been higher from the geriatric segment, and this trend is expected to gain further momentum in the future. Besides these, the other future trends include chemical consciousness, lifestyle enhancement and health convenience.

The opportunities in Cambodia

- Increasing trade integration

WTO member since 2004

ASEAN membership offers regional trade benefits

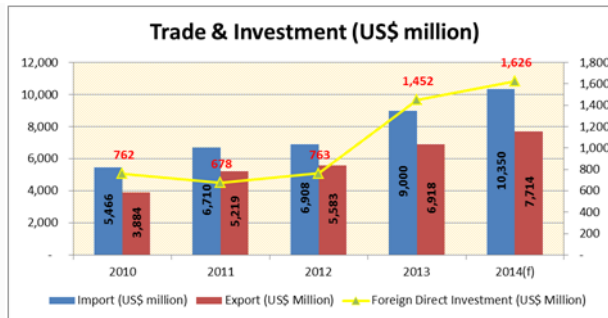

Duty free or preferential export access to most developed economies

- Lower costs in telecoms and internet

Hyper-competition in mobile and internet sectors has cut user costs

New hydropower and coal-fired power plants underway will replace oil-based generation and cut energy costs

- Rising productivity

- Under-Penetrated, growing domestic consumer market

Exceptionally youthful demographics ensures rising domestic demand (61% of Cambodians are under 25 years old; median age: 21)

Workforce participation, household formation, and urbanization will all show robust growth over the next decade

Per capita GDP and purchasing power has more than doubled over the past decade and will continue to rise

Emerging import substitution opportunities in various industries

Exchange Rate & Foreign Exchange Reserve

- Un-leveraged financial position

Relatively low levels of sovereign, corporate, and consumer debt

Well capitalized, conservative banking system

No tradition of government bailouts and subsidies (Surprisingly rare in today's world)

- Last Frontier Market

Cambodia is probably the LAST investment frontier market in the region. Enjoy the 1st mover's advantage when you get started right now

- Young & Inexpensive workforce

Among Asia lowest work force

Abundance of willing and trainable work force

Rising literacy rate has surpass 75%
