Description

Mersin – an Opening Door to the World for the Agriculture Sector of Southeastern Anatolian Project and Middle East

CNR Holding affiliate company Pozitif FuarÄ±Ä±k, by means of International Agriculture & Horticulture Fair is getting ready to bring together all the sector at Mersin City, which is an important center of Turkey's agriculture production and export.

Mersin International Agriculture and Horticulture Fair continues to be one of the most important agriculture exhibitions in Turkey and provides substantial participation of professional spheres every year. Agriculture sector investments grow and number of participants and visitors rises up every passing year in Mersin, where agricultural production increases up to 50% annually.

Mersin's economy is oriented on the agriculture, trade, industry, university and local tourism. An international airport, fast land transport opportunity due to highway, a port and developed "Free Zone" activities have brought Mersin into the position of an opening door to the world for one of the leading regional development projects GAP (the Southeastern Anatolia Project).
