What is SOLID?

SOLID the Summit On Legal Innovation and Disruption is an interactive SOLID Talk exchange of ideas by doers, innovators and disruptors in the business of law. Speakers and participants will inform, instruct and inspire one another to design and apply solutions that will elevate and accelerate their careers from now to next.

Did you ever listen to a great SOLID Talk or panel and wish you had time to engage and brainstorm in real time on how to apply those ideas to your business? SOLID will provide participants with maximum interaction with speakers and fellow attendees in a round table, workshop environment to assess current challenges design concrete solutions.

Reasons to Attend SOLID

Our day will be broken into three themed segments focused on innovation and disruption. We will focus on challenges and barriers, identify opportunities for meaningful change, and develop solutions for all market segments.

250 legal professionals and subject matter experts from law departments, law firms, alternative legal service providers, and academics.

Purposefully moderated tables with curated participants from all market segments.

Participants will switch their tables 2 times throughout the day.
