Organizer : STRATA

Venue :

Location : Javits Center,655 W. 34th St,
New York, ,NY, US, ZIP: 10001

Strata is a three-day deep dive into the business of data.
You'll get a first look at the emerging trends that will rock the data industry—and the insight you need to prepare your career and business for the future.

You'll get an insider's perspective on data's latest tools and technologies—and the technical expertise and detailed case studies you need to make your data strategies and implementations work today.

And you'll share ideas and best practices with thousands of the leading minds in technology and business: data scientists, AI researchers, developers, analysts, engineers, and executives from a wide range of industries, including speakers like Jacob Ward, Amanda Pustilnik, and Julia Angwin.

Whether you want to:

Achieve demonstrable ROI for your data projects
Apply new machine learning techniques to solve business problems
Build security, compliance, and transparency into your data products
Move from real-time processing to real-time analysis
Architect data applications that achieve your specific goals—whether it's fraud detection or anticipating your customer's next moves
Deploy and manage your machine learning models
Or just solve that irritating data problem that interferes with your workflow
Strata's community of experts will have the hard-won experience and expertise to help you succeed.

Diversity and inclusion at Strata
We believe that true innovation depends on hearing from, and listening to, people with a variety of perspectives. Please read our Diversity Statement and learn more about our Diversity and Inclusion scholarship program.

Women in Engineering ProActive Network
To support diversity in the larger tech community, we work with inclusion-focused nonprofits. While Strata registration is open, we're raising funds for Women in Engineering ProActive Network and invite you to join us. Learn more »

We're committed to creating a safe and productive environment for everyone at all of our events. Please read our Code of Conduct.
